

MODULE ON CYBERBULLYING MOCIBA 2022

Statistical information source on the situation of cyberbullying in Mexico.

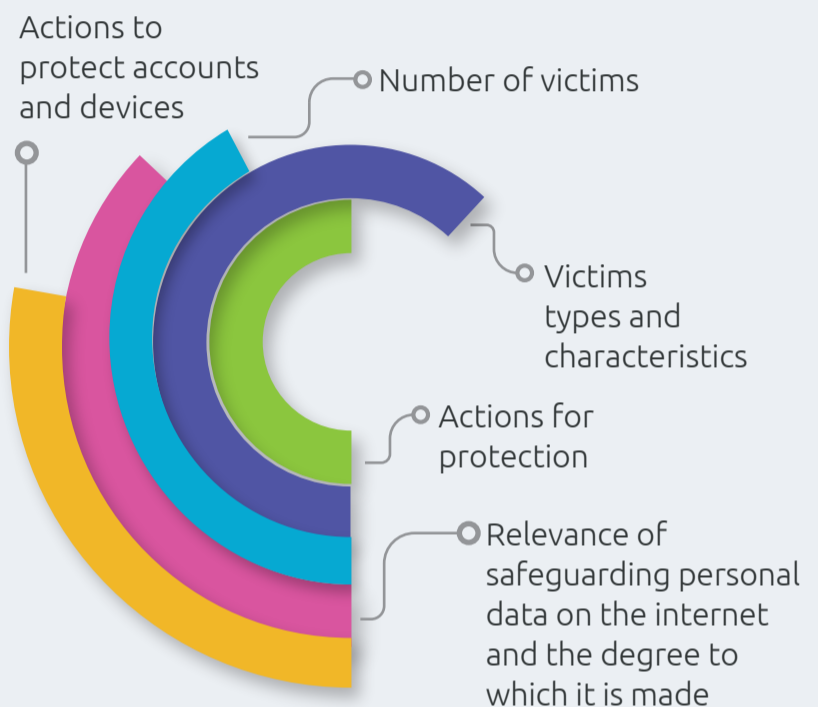

About the MOCIBA

It is a module of the National Survey on Availability and Use of Information Technologies in Households (ENDUTIH).

Once the interview of the ENDUTIH is concluded, MOCIBA is applied to eligible informants.

What is measured with the MOCIBA?

Methodological characteristics

- Observation unit: housing unit, household and selected person
- Face to face interview
- Probabilistic sample
- Sample of 65 188 housing units
- National coverage, urban and rural by state
- Collection period: June 13th to August 5th, 2022

Informant

Person 12 years or older that has used Internet on any device in the last three months.

Importance

Allows to characterize cyberbullying and to identify its impact on the population.

Contributes to the design of public policies to prevent and address cyberbullying.

Identifies the value given to data protection on the Internet.

Contributes to assessing technology facilitated gender violence.

Made by:

Deputy General Directorate of Development, Government Analysis and Indicators.
Deputy General Directorate of National Government Surveys, Public Safety and Justice.

